Brig. Gen. Julius White has been relieved from duty as commander of the Draft Residence at the place, and confered to report to the Commanding General of the Army of the Potomac, for assignment to duty. Gen. White has been a valuable and efficient officer at this place, and his administration here has been not only acceptable to the people, but quite astisfactory to the Government.

Campa Butter and Yates were redeemed by his stringent measures from the bad name they had obtaind previously, and military affairs conducted in a proper spirit and with evident ability. He leaves for Washington to Storrow.
